

Short Bio for Josephine Nwoke

Josephine (JO) Nwoke is a licensed clinic social worker and addiction counselor in ARC program. She has a Master's degree in social work practice with emphasis on families and children.

She has more than 17 years-experience providing diagnostic assessment, counseling and mental health services to individuals, groups and families with emphasis on psychotherapy, chemical dependency utilizing the DSM –IV multi-axial systems and dealing with domestic abuse issues. Her other areas of expertise include child protective services, case management, provision of assessment and evaluation for IEP/emotional behavioral disorder, crisis intervention and linkages of individuals and families to appropriate community support & treatment.

Josephine A. Nwoke, MSW, LICSW